

Bert Boeckmann is owner of several dealerships, a father of five and has been deeply involved in the Valley for more than four decades. He is the recipient of "Time Magazine's" "National Quality Dealer of the Year", the highest award given to any automobile dealer. Here he explains why he opened The Horseless Carriage Restaurant more than 47 years ago.

When THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE opened for business in 1966, Galpin was the first and only automobile dealership in the country to offer its customers a full service restaurant on the premises. Why include a restaurant in an automobile dealership? We felt this would be a valuable service for our customers. After all thinking of our customers first has always been a tradition at Galpin Ford.

Since 1946 Galpin Ford has been doing business with honesty and integrity. Our devoted and diligent staff stand behind the products they sell and believe in doing things right the first time.

The same standards which apply to the quality of products we sell in the showroom can be found with regard to the items you will find on our menu. All the food which we prepare from scratch is made from the finest, freshest ingredients. We never use MSG or preservatives in anything we make. And, of course, you can expect to get great value for the food here; that's because quality and value are also part of the Galpin tradition.

One other thing...just as Galpin Ford is proud and determined to offer our customers the latest and finest developments in transportation technology, THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE RESTAURANT is committed to providing our patrons with contemporary dishes served in a beautiful setting. This ensures that everything from our Art Deco design to our healthy entrées is fresh and exciting. As always, at Galpin we are continually striving to give you the very best.

We hope you enjoy dining at THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE RESTAURANT, and we gladly welcome any opinions and comments.

What They're Saying...

About the Horseless Carriage Restaurant

“For years, gourmets, customers and employees have been enjoying the good and terrific values at this small restaurant—a counter, six booths and a small, intimate dining room which seats a dozen.” -Ford Times

“...The restaurant is a clubby, all-American coffee shop with...a homey atmosphere—and squeaky clean, like the sport rims on a new Mustang...plenty of locals come for this food, too, familiar fare that is as comforting as the scent of new vinyl...There may be as many good choices in this coffee shop as there are on the entire Galpin lot.” - Los Angeles Times

“...little touches make you feel at home; professional waitresses who aren't running off to auditions, a bakery on the premises that cranks up at 5 a.m....” -L.A. Weekly

About Galpin Ford

“...Your Galpinized vehicles, the success of your business, and what you've done for your community... it's really unprecedented! Bert, you're a great role model and a great inspiration for all of us at Ford Motor Company and especially my family.”

Bill Ford
Executive Chairman
Ford Motor Company

“...One of my treasures is knowing and working together with you. So special... I treasure our partnership and friendship.”

Phillip Caldwell
Chairman of the Board
Ford Motor Company
1980-1990

“...a unique example of an outstanding businessman, civic leader and private citizen. His executive ability and keen sense of justice combine to make Bert a man who we at Ford Motor Company regard with respect and admiration.”

“The best in the business—bar none!”

Lee A. Iacocca
Former President of Ford Motor Company
and Chrysler Corporation

“...You exemplify many of our Nation's most cherished traditions—duty, sacrifice, and a patriotism that finds its expression in taking part and pitching in—and yours is truly a success story...”

George Bush
Former President of the United States

“...When I think of what's right with America, I will always think of men like Bert Boeckmann. May your good deeds be rewarded with continued success and good health.”

Ronald Reagan
Former President of the United States
